Tornado Hits Lovells Twp.

A tornado struck Lovells Township Saturday shortly after 8 p.m. as part of a large storm that crossed northern Michigan that night. Hundreds of trees were pulled out by their roots or broken in half in an area along Bald Hill Road. One house had a tree fall on it while several vehicles and accessory buildings in the area were hit by trees. Residents in the area say they heard the tornado shortly after 8:05 p.m. when the electricity went out. Several other confirmed sightings of tornadoes were reported throughout northern lower Michigan during the same storm.

Driver Injured as Truck Overtakes

A Canadian driver apparently fell asleep at the wheel of a semi-tractor trailer and went off the Four Mile entrance ramp that leads to I-75 South. Daniel Connor, 25, of Ontario, suffered lacerations and a broken rib when the truck overturned. Fifty to a hundred gallons of fuel spilled from the truck's saddle tanks. The accident occurred about 3:37 a.m. Thursday. The driver was taken to Mercy Hospital for treatment. The Beaver Creek Fire Dept. and the DNR helped clean the spill area.

Shawono Walkaways Suspected in B&E

Two Camp Shawono walkaways were caught September 5th and police suspect they were involved in a breaking and entering on Wendy Lane along West M-72. A back door was kicked in at a cabin and clothing plus camping gear were taken. The pair from Shawono were apprehended by a Sheriff patrol car about 6:20 p.m. about an hour and a half after the B & E was reported.

And, if you have never donated Blood, why don't you come and be a first time Donor? You will never forget the great feeling of satisfaction for having donated!

And, Dial-A-Ride will come and pick you up, take you to the Legion Hall in Grayling, and bring you back home — without charge — if you come to give a pint of your Blood! Just dial 348-5409.

Georgia-Pacific Discusses Proposed Plant with Public

Representatives of Georgia-Pacific discussed their Grayling plant proposal for more than two hours at a public meeting Monday night at the Grayling Holiday Inn.

The company officials talked about Georgia-Pacific Corporation and the Grayling plant proposal for about 25 minutes and then answered questions from an audience of about 40 persons for more than an hour and a half.

Some of the questions and answers from the meeting are paraphrased here:

Will railroad traffic increase because of the Georgia-Pacific plant?

Railroad traffic is not expected to increase. Georgia-Pacific expects to have raw materials brought in at a rate of about 17 railroad cars a week from the south. The extra 17 railroad cars a week are expected to be brought in by the regular scheduled trains. The trains may be a little longer once or twice a week but no extra train runs are foreseen.

What are the dangers of raw materials spilling in a railroad accident?

All the raw materials are bio-degradable and are not flammable or explosive chemicals. The railroad cars carrying the materials are designed to absorb impact without spilling. If there is a spill, a plan will already be filed with the state on how the company intends to contain and clean the spill. The railroad line that will serve the Grayling plant has never had a spill incident and neither has Georgia-Pacific at any of its other 14 chemical plants.

Will this plant expand?

Georgia-Pacific does not expect rapid expansion. If they do decide to expand, they must go through the public permit process again.

Could formaldehyde be produced at the plant in the future?

Georgia-Pacific is one of the fifth largest producers of formaldehyde in the U.S. It does not need to produce it at Grayling because G-P has adequate, secure sources. If G-P did decide to produce formaldehyde here, it would have to go through the public permit process again.

Will there be any hazardous waste from the plant?

There will be nothing discharged into the ground from the plant except ordinary waste from restrooms that will go into a septic system. Water used in operations will be recycled. The only waste will come from cleaning filters from the recycling systems and this waste is considered non-hazardous and will be taken to an industrial landfill.

Will Georgia-Pacific building here increase the chance of turning the Four Mile Road area into a big industrial park?

Jim Donaldson, of the Michigan Dept. of Commerce, said it isn't likely a plant similar to Weyerhaeuser or Georgia-Pacific will locate next to a competitor. He said a secondary wood product plant might like the location, but he said it is mostly state land there that is difficult to swap for.

How much air pollution will the plant produce?

Very small amounts. The most advanced air pollution equipment will capture 97 percent of pollution in emissions. The remaining 3 percent is very small. For instance, the formaldehyde released into the air from the plant will be ten times less than the amount of formaldehyde found on a ten-mile stretch of I-75 near the plant. The formaldehyde and other products released do not accumulate in the environment.

Will there be an odor from the plant?

No, you will not be able to smell the plant as you drive by on Four Mile Road. The plant also will not be visible from Four Mile Rd.

What has been Georgia-Pacific's biggest environmental problem at its other chemical plants?

Probably release of chemicals from the cooking "kettle." The new quench tank design safety feature that will be used at Grayling eliminates any worry about this problem. In another state where G-P installed the quench tank, the state environmental dept. said it insures there will be no release ever into the atmosphere.

In a worst case scenario where chemicals did escape into the air, what would happen?

"Nothing that is used or produced at this facility has the potential for accidental emissions of poison gas that would pose a threat to human life, such as occurred recently in Bhopal, India," said Howard Gergen, G-P vice-president of the chemical division. If the chemicals ever did escape all the safety controls, the spill probably would not go beyond the plant site and be contained in the concrete bathtub construction of the plant.

Group Eyes 2- County Recreation Facilities

A survey by an athletic and recreation center committee is being circulated this week in both Crawford and Roscommon counties.

Bill Watts, of Higgins Lake, said the committee is interested in finding out what type of facilities area residents would like to see built, and how facilities could be supported.

Watts said the aim of the group is to build a debt-free facility in the area bordered by Four Miles Road, Higgins Lake, U.S. 27, and I-75 using private, corporate, or government grants. Then the center would be maintained by the people using the facility. But the survey will help the group find out what residents want.

The survey, published in the Avalanche and Roscommon Herald News by the Grayling Youth Booster Club and the Roscommon-Higgins Lake Lions Club, asks residents to list facilities they would like to see at the center.

The athletic and recreation center would have a 25-yard competition class swimming pool plus any other facilities the public wanted.

Listed on the survey form were the following items to consider: sauna/spa, racquetball courts, weight training room, multipurpose room (for volleyball and organized exercise such as dancing), softball fields, outdoor tennis courts, soccer fields, basketball courts outdoors, playground, picnic area, horseshoe pits, ice rinks (indoor or outdoor), shuffle board courts, cross-country ski trails, and archery range.

The survey also asks if a government unit should run the center, a private non-profit organization, or if the center should not be built.

The survey asks how the center should be funded — by millage, memberships with fees for each use, user fee, or another method.

The survey is located on Page 17.

GMS Renovation Plan Approved by Voters

Crawford AuSable School District voters approved a bond issue Tuesday by a 1010 to 902 vote.

The Bond issue will raise money to renovate the Grayling Middle School, add classrooms at the Grayling Elementary School, and improve playgrounds at three sites.

Renovation of the Grayling Middle School gym and construction of an addition at the middle school will start in the spring of 1986. Renovation of the main middle school building will begin in June of 1986 after classes are finished. More details on the construction projects will appear in next week's Avalanche.

Crawford AuSable Superintendent Kent Reynolds said the bond approval was a major accomplishment for the community and a significant addition to the growth of this community.

In Precinct I, covering the former Grayling Public School territory, the bond issue was approved by a 216-vote margin 863 to 647.

In Precinct II, covering all of the former Frederic Community Schools territory except Lovells Township, the issue was defeated 153 to 87.

In Precinct III, Lovells Township, the issue was defeated 102 to 60.

Camp Grayling Possible Site for Helicopter Unit

By Jon Thompson

Camp Grayling is included on a list of possible sites for one of two new helicopter units planned for Michigan.

Sixteen to seventeen helicopters and 67 persons will probably be included in each unit.

Jim Kellogg, of the Dept. of Military Affairs in Lansing, said the units have been approved for Michigan but everything is still in the planning stages. A number of sites in northern Michigan are being considered as a base for a helicopter unit, he said. Mt. Pleasant and Traverse City are two areas that have shown interest in becoming a base for the helicopter unit.

Kellogg said Camp Grayling ranks high on any list for possible sites because a helicopter unit here could provide support for training.

Colonel Ivan Gwilt, commander of Camp Grayling, said a helicopter unit would train one weekend a month year-round similar to other Michigan Army Guard units who train one weekend a month year-round. Gwilt said the unit would not be training daily year-round.

Gwilt said if Camp Grayling was selected as a site, a new hanger and building would probably need to be built for the unit, possibly on the site where the current MATES complex is now. The MATES complex is scheduled to be moved to range 30 north of North Down River and Headquarters Road in the next couple of years.

Gwilt said plans have just started for the helicopter unit and if everything was approved, it would take four or five years until the buildings were completed.

River, Lake Associations Meet Over National Guard, Oil and Gas Well Problems

Representatives from five area river and lake associations met Thursday to discuss mutual problems with the military and oil and gas industry.

Paul Stoffa, from the Guthrie Lake Enchanted Forest Association, said the Air National Guard's continuous operations, all-night firing by the Army National Guard, and low-flying helicopters are problems in his area. He said residents are fed up with the apparent lack of responsibility placed on users of military ranges and the residents are tired of having no recourse against military misuse of the area.

Stoffa helped organize a meeting of the area river and lake associations because he felt there was going to be an uprising in northern Michigan and he wanted it to be a constructive uprising.

"Military training is a business here — let's make it productive," Stoffa said. "Right now they're not training troops properly and they don't have any control over the troops in the field."

Stoffa said the problems between area residents and the military can be worked out if the parties can meet halfway. One idea already suggested to the military last year was relocating the air to ground range. Another compromise suggestion is to change firing schedules.

Bob Franklin, of the AuSable River Property Owners Association, said he understood the training needs of the military for nighttime firing, but shooting from midnight to morning was a bit too much.

William Pulgini, from the AuSable North Branch Association, said the military has outgrown the area. Land values in the Lovells area has dropped considerably because of the military, he said.

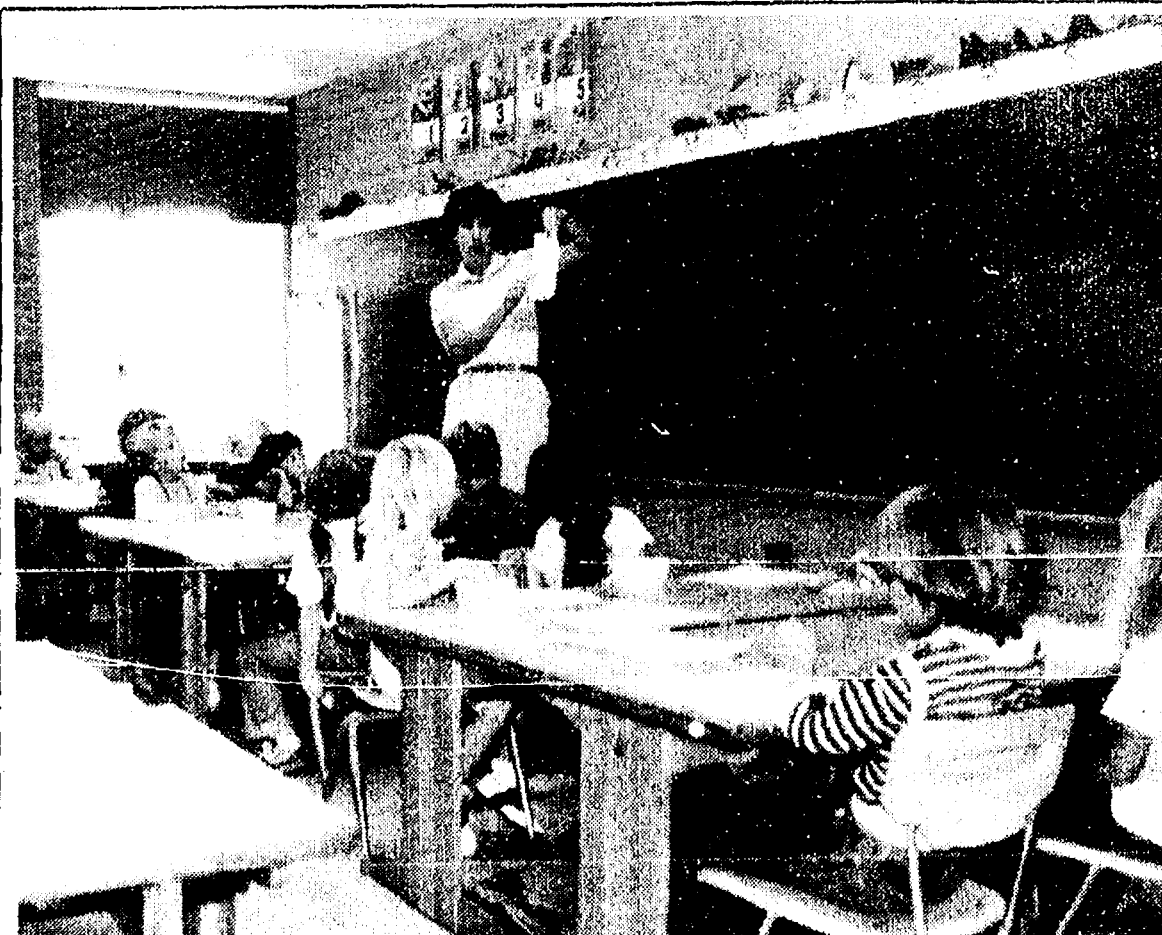

Pulgini said the National Guard has grown in numbers and have more drills now. The equipment used is also bigger. He said the National Guard's common response that they were here first doesn't take into account the increase in troops training and the heavier guns used.

Bill Palmer, also from the North Branch group, said the military should have to stay on their land and not use county roads when they could use range roads. He said they have chewed up Bald Hill Rd. in Lovells Twp.

Lt. Pat Nunn, second in command at Camp Grayling, told the group that the military is currently studying the noise and vibrations effects from the ranges.

He said the study will help show if relocation of some ranges will help. Nunn also said the military is looking into firing simulation

From Our Corner...

We attended a luncheon meeting at the Holiday Inn last Thursday with a group of men who were representing their several organizations in the area trying to come up with a common goal...to control their problems...

Representatives were from associations, such as the Manistee River, the Main Stream of the AuSable, the North Branch, Lovells Area, Opal Lake in Otsego County, the governing body of drilling Oil and Gas wells, the MUCC, the DNR, the Michigan National Guard, and Guthrie Lake on the border of Crawford and Otsego county line...

Subjects covered included such as oil and gas drilling in a property owner's back yard when the owner doesn't own the mineral rights...the construction of drains into the Manistee River on M-72 inabbling brine from the highway to flow into the river...the control of the habitat of the Main Stream and the North Branch...the air bombing around Guthrie Lake by the Air National Guard from Alpena and aircraft from all over the United States...to the tank firing by the Army National Guard located at Camp Grayling...

Their concerns are major...we live now in an area of environmentalist and economists...what is the most important? This question will have to be decided by someone more intelligent than I...

Jon Thompson, has a detailed article on the meeting on page one of your favorite paper...

Just a side bar...thanks Dr. Steffe, for helping out our bride...

An idle thought...Irv paid a visit last week...nuf said, we couldn't print it anyway...

Sometimes we feel like we're Bob Talbot, Detroit Free Press columnist with his doing Detroit after dark...either that, or there are a few people who like to be mentioned in the Turkey...not really, we like people, where we're headed there won't be many friends...

Anyway, the weekend of Labor Day we ran into some friends of George, head haunchau of McIntyre's Landing at the hotel for fish...after they passed over their names, Marietta and Vic Morris, Lily and Carl Walters, and Lee and Bob Paulsen, it so happens that Bob and I are sort of shirt tail relatives...he is related to one of my aunts by marriage, I guess...really, none of them owned up to knowing George...

Now is the biggy... We attended Gordon and Aileen Pond's golden anniversary on Saturday...and would you believe, our love life of ten years ago was there...Angel Mika, granddaughter of Gordon and Aileen's gave me a big kiss, and said she loved me...now there are not many young 20 year olds that do that to the ol' fella...if you read this, Angel, much happiness in your life...

The following happened in daylight...we're invited once again to take in the Tiger baseball game this Saturday against the Baltimore Orioles with the Le Coache Tours out of the Holiday Inn, and right now we're beside ourself...there are a few seats left, and we enjoyed our last trip because you leave the driving up to someone else...we just couldn't make it...

Quotables

James R. (Scotty) Reston of the New York Times quotes a bagful of Russian proverbs — one-liners that might be worth remembering next time you have problems.

—If you are a rooster, crow. If you are a hen, shut up and lay eggs.

—The shortage will be divided up among the peasants.

—If you are tired of a friend, lend him money.

—Pray to God, but keep rowing to shore.

—Life is unbearable, but death is not so pleasant either.

With that, there is nothing else except, good-night T.J., Stefany and Amber...and to anyone else who may come into our corner, have a nice weekend...be sure and take in the Rotary Club's Garage Sale at the Depot this Saturday...

The Bible Speaks

From Calvary Baptist Church

CREATION EXNIHILO

Down through the generations, human theories of evolution have gone through more varieties than Quaker's Oats. The latest theory called creation exnihilo is a scientific explanation of what happened before the "Big Bang." The "Big Bang" is the theory that about 10 to 15 million years ago the Universe as we know it was formed by a primeval fireball of intense energy and density which expanded and cooled.

According to some modern scientists, "creation exnihilo" was the process in which the primeval fireball developed from nothing. They now believe that before "creation exnihilo" there was no gravity, no matter, no space, and no time. Through "quantum electrodynamics" science has observed particles coming into existence and then annihilating one another. The development of particles into the giant primeval fireball is explained by a theory called cosmic inflation.

It is interesting that after generations of research and development, man has finally returned to the Bible account of creation. "In the beginning God created the heaven and earth. And the earth was without form, and void; and darkness was upon the face of the deep." Genesis 1:1,2. Theologian Augustus H. Strong stated it well nearly 100 years ago, "By creation we mean that free act of the triune God by which in the beginning for his own glory he made, without the use of preexisting materials, the whole visible and invisible universe."

The idea that matter was created from nothing material is clearly stated in Hebrews 11:3. "Through faith we understand that the worlds were framed by the word of God, so that things which are seen were not made of things which do appear." Science is now agreeing with the Bible that matter is not eternal. The Bible says matter owes its existence to the word of God. The Bible says matter is still held together by the word of God. "And he (Jesus Christ) is before all things, and by him all things consist." The word consist means hold together.

The theory of evolution which was started to explain our universe without God, must now deal again with God. It takes more faith to believe in "creation exnihilo" than Genesis 1:1. It takes more faith to believe everything came into existence from nothing, than to believe God created everything by the word of His power. It takes more faith to believe in gravity, matter, space, time, order, and beauty out of nothing, than it does to believe in God. What is man's answer to the cause of our universe? Edward P. Tryon, a physicist at Hunter College in New York who first proposed the "creation exnihilo" theory has said: "In answer to the question of why it happened, I offer the modest proposal that our universe is simply one of those things which happen from time to time."

The latest theory of origins is by creation from nothing. Did nothing do the creating or did God? Only a fool will miss the answer.

Sibs For Kids

Giving your time to a young person who needs it is much more meaningful than gifts or money. Being a Big Brother or Sister, through the Crawford County Sibs for Kids Program need not require a large financial commitment. The most important thing is to commit yourself: be a friend, build a positive relationship. A Big Brother or Sister is available to talk and listen to a young friend and serve as a responsible model. The Sibs for Kids Program's main priority is to match lonely young people, from one-parent homes, with a compatible Big Brother or Sister. If you are interested in becoming a part of our special program or know of a youngster who could benefit from our services, call us at 348-2841, ext. 262 or stop by our office on M-72 W. Sibs for Kids is a United Way supported agency.

South Africa Dominates Attention

by Richard Millman

THE IMPENDING TRAGEDY of South Africa is increasingly dominating the news pages and programs these days. Metropolitan newspapers devote entire pages to a single day's developments, and radio/television devotes entire programs to this far-away land and its problems.

The Rev. Jerry Falwell steps into the middle of it, too, and if it weren't such a serious problem, the Falwell flap would be downright humorous.

Mr. Falwell took a five-day trip to South Africa and returned with all sorts of advice and comment, including his notion that Nobel peace prize-winning Bishop Desmond Tutu is "a phony" — a remark which he later sort of recanted.

NATURALLY, the Falwell charge was met with a barrage of indignation, with spokespersons for America's black community in the forefront.

Wrote Detroit News columnist June Brown: "We must witness the humiliating spectacle of a nationally recognized Christian minister who saw black South Africans in a bear fight and stepped in to help the bear."

The Rev. Jesse Jackson, never known for his rhetorical restraint, lived up to his perceived assignment with the comment: "Anyone who would choose (white South African President) Botha over Tutu would choose Bull Connor over Martin Luther King, would choose Hitler over the Jews, would choose Herod over Jesus, and would choose Pharaoh over Moses."

MR. FALWELL overstated his point, in defending the ruling white South African regime; if not, then Bishop Tutu has been fooling millions of people around the globe, including not only Americans and black Africans, but the Nobel prize committee and white African leadership as well. The Botha administration obviously considers the bishop as a force with which to reckon.

Keep in mind that the Falwell trip lasted five days — hardly enough to come up with answers, let alone long enough to even understand all the questions. But we will hear more from Mr. Falwell on the South African crisis, we can be sure.

Falwell's stated concern about communist incursion into a revolution-racked South Africa, in my view, is a possibility that should not be discounted.

ONE OF THE GREAT tragedies of South Africa, it seems to me, is that there appears to be no solution — which is both moral and practical at the same time. The eventual result, it is becoming clearer and clearer to many people, can only be more bloodshed, more fighting, more death and destruction.

Eventually there will be an end to white subjugation of blacks in South Africa, and it appears that this end will not come through peaceful means. Botha and the ruling whites talk of gradualism; black leaders talk of handing over power. One may be practical, but not moral; the other may be moral, but not practical.

Meanwhile, some observers — including conservative columnists James Kilpatrick and George Will, to cite a couple — have pointed out that the United States is really not that far away from problems somewhat similar to those racking South Africa.

Commission Reports on Two Year Study of Juvenile Justice

Warren M. Hoyt, Exec. Dir., MPA

A commission on state handling of neglected and abused children, established in 1982 by then Supreme Court Chief Justice Mary Coleman, has released its final report which contains 38 recommendations.

The recommendations include making improvements in staffing quality and placing maximum time limits for each step in the juvenile justice and child care system.

"It cannot be acceptable procedure to let children drift in the limbo of the legal and child welfare systems for years and years. We cannot allow thousands of Michigan's children to grow up without family ties. We must hold the belief that it is every child's inalienable right to belong in a family," the report said.

Recommendations by the commission include reducing the number of foster care cases per worker to 25 and the number of protective services referrals per month to caseworkers to 15.

The commission also recommended that reasonable efforts be made to maintain children in their families, which would require various resources to supervise such efforts.

Visitation practices by parents should be encouraged and improved, the commission report said.

The commission also recommended a clearer definition in the quality, nature and scope of the review hearing by amending the Juvenile Court Rules, which would determine how soon the first review hear-death and destruction, and it took several more generations of practice and laws and court decisions to implement what passes for equality today. Many will contend we still do not enjoy equality among the races here; it's an arguable point.

Why, ask some critics, should we be so critical of white South Africa when we have done such a lousy and foot-dragging job in our own country? Why indeed? I suppose the answer is wrong, and wrong should be ended and rights should be extended. That makes sense.

PERHAPS IT does not bear on the subject, but I refer to a recent article in the Detroit News describing the increasing national impact of the black delegation in Congress. There are 20 members of the Black Caucus in the House in Washington, and their influence is increasing because of their solidarity and the increase in the tenure of the 20 black congressmen, including Reps. John Conyers and George Crockett of Michigan.

But, the article points out, most political scientists don't expect the Black Caucus to increase in size, because of the makeup of congressional districts around the country.

"There are fewer and fewer urban districts that are competitive," says Milton Morris, research director for the Joint Center of Political Studies.

BLACK CAUCUS influence may not grow much either because black congressional leaders may have to trim their sails as they take on overall leadership roles, and therefore must speak and act for broader and broader constituencies.

"We're representing black Americans, 24 million black Americans, many who are not in our districts," Conyers says. "But if you have a leadership position (in Congress), it's not as easy to push the black alternative."

Now, think for a moment what these two limiting factors really mean.

Having fewer urban congressional districts that are "competitive" seems to mean that only black voters will elect black congressmen, and therefore a limited number of black districts will produce a limited number of black congressmen. As of today, that is probably true.

Mr. Conyers appears concerned about submerging the "black alternative" as broader leadership positions for blacks would seem to require; this is also probably true as of today.

IT MAKES a rather sad commentary that black congressmen must come from black districts, and that they must advance a black agenda which is somewhat different from the overall welfare of the country. But that's what apparently is the status of "American apartheid" today.

Certainly the United States is far ahead of South Africa in extending rights and privileges and equality to members of all races.

But until black candidates can reasonably expect to be elected without regard to the racial makeup of any particular district, and until black office-holders can discard a "black alternative" on the basis that it only duplicates what is good for the entire nation, then we still have a long way to go in this country, too.

DNR Participates In Sting Operation

Lansing — A sting operation which moved $400,000 in furs ended today with warrants issued for the arrests of over 300 people in eight states on Federal and State charges, including 118 individuals in Michigan, the Dept. of Natural Resources (DNR) announced.

DNR Director Ronald O. Skoog said 54 conservation officers assisted by 11 Federal agents began arrests at 7:00 a.m. today. Michigan Law Enforcement Division officers joined officers in Minnesota and Wisconsin and officials from the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service in setting up the sting operation in Duluth, Minnesota. The operation will have a major impact on the nation's fur trade industry, according to Federal officials.

Skoog explained that the Mesabi Fur Company was established in Duluth in the fall of 1983, and operated until this morning. It served as a base for obtaining information on the fur industry and the effects of the unlawful harvest of fur-bearing animals. Furs taken or sold unlawfully to officer/buyers were documented and retained for evidence. Some unlawfully taken fur was resold to fur companies and brokers following contact to establish their willingness to deal in illegal wildlife.

DNR law enforcement officials say over 500 violations, ranging from misdemeanors, such as taking fur out of season, to felony charges of interstate transportation and sale of unlawfully taken fur, were encountered in the investigation. "We obtained vital information on brokers and large scale purchasers. Sales of unlawful fur to these purchasers were made and documented," reported Frank Opolka, Regional Director for the U.P.

He went on to say that the conservation officers who worked on the operation are part of the RAP (Report All Poaching) Program. This is the largest fish and wildlife investigation the Department has ever participated in, he noted. The poaching of endangered species and fur-bearers with a limited hunting season is one of the major concerns of conservation officers said Opolka. The operation focused on fisher, pine marten, otter, bobcat, lynx and timber wolf.

Other violations including the sale of deer and game fish were also discovered in the investigation. "There are 100 open cases," he continued. Law Enforcement Division is continuing its investigations of these cases.

Speaking from Marquette, Opolka said arrests are being made in the U.P. and parts of the northern Lower Peninsula. "This operation involved a small segment of trappers," he stressed. "The Dept. will continue its aggressive pursuit of poachers through the RAP Program." He went on to say the DNR has always and will continue to support lawful trapping and the commercial use of furbearing animals. "But," the Regional Director stated, "violations can't be tolerated."

The information obtained in the operation gives Michigan and other states important information about the illegal fur trade. Said Opolka, "Hopefully as a result of this operation, DNR can improve its enforcement of existing laws for the fur trade industry and identify areas where new or stronger laws are needed."

Dr. and Mrs. B.E. Henig spent eight days in Salmon Arm, British Columbia, visiting their daughter and her family, Jan and Don Sawyer, Melissa and Farish. They flew to Calgary, then to Kalona and were met there by Don. They had a most enjoyable trip and liked the beautiful scenery.

Mark Gust and Greg Welsner are beginning their freshman year at Ferris State College and are rooming together. Lary Gust took them down on Friday and they are all settled and looking forward to a great year.

Jerry and Ruth Barger of Toledo, Ohio, spent a few days visiting Mrs. Bessie Deckrow. Also coming to visit while his mother was hospitalized were her son, Axel Peterson and his wife, Joan of Bellevue, Nebraska.

The Sports couple of the year, a new trophy begun last year, was presented to Evelyn & Ab Sager by the Cal Brenners.

Winners in the days golf play were: Women closest to the flag on #2 - Clara Beaufait. Men's closest to the flag on #1 - Ralph Davison. Women's closest to the pin on #8 - Rose Crawford. Men's closest to the pin on #8 - Bill Scheer.

Winners in team play were: 1st. prize to Caroline Glaza & Carl Garbe. 2nd prize went to Rose Crawford and Keith Glaza.

An election of officers was held at which time retiring chairpersons Ralph & Mavis Davison turned the gavel over to Keith & Caroline Glaza. Leo & Lucille Bagrosky were voted vice chairpersons. Sue Brenner retained her seat as Secretary-Treasurer and Bill & Marlene Harris will be filling retiring Ab & Evelyn Sagers seat as scorekeepers. New members to the board are the Harrises and the Bagroskys.

Gordon Cheney, club manager, with the help of his great staff, prepared and served the league, Gordies famous baked Sweet & Sour Pork Chops dinner with German chocolate cake for dessert. Everyone agreed the dinner was outstanding.

And so it was goodbye to the super summer of '85' with everyone looking forward to next year.

Strolling

Around Town

Since walking is one of my favorites, it's been with regret that I've had less time to do it this summer season. But a leisurely evening stroll last week took us up Ogema Street where we found many well-kept yards. We know Cindy Olson enjoys keeping her yard trimmed, the Wolfs have flowers, as do the Weimans. Something we hadn't noticed when driving by, is the attractive sundeck and hanging pots of flowers at Dorothy McLeods. Her neighbors yards were neatly kept and in the next block, the George Grangers have many flowers along the foundation and Gusts have flowers.

The Winingers have always kept their home neat and have many decorations. On the opposite side of the street, Golnicks, Burketts and Papendicks have flowers or neatly mowed yards and trimmed bushes. I do not know who lives in "the former Frank Bond house" but they have done extensive remodeling and it looks great.

Tom T. Hall Concert to Kick-off Kirtland Series

The Tom T. Hall Concert is set to kick-off Kirtland Community College's 1985-1986 Performing Artist Series on Saturday, October 5 at 8 p.m. in the Gilbert I. Stewart Auditorium. Hall became a strong force in country music after Jeannie C. Riley recorded the six million seller "Harper Valley P.T.A." which he wrote. Since then, his own recordings include the hits "Sneaky Snake," "Love Is," "I Like Beer," "The Ballad of Forty Dollars" and others. Known as the Storyteller because of his poignant ballads, Tom T. will be performing his songs which "depict the inside workings of people" with a six piece country band which includes his son, Dean T., on guitar.

Although a most distinguished song writer, with George Jones, Loretta Lynn, Johnny Cash, Bobby Bare, Perry Como, George Burns and many others recording his songs, Hall has many other pursuits also. He is an author with three published books, the latest of which is called "The Laughing Man of Woodmont Coves." It is not surprising that Tom T. is a novelist, since his library in Nashville contains the works of Hemingway, Faulkner and Sinclair Lewis.

Hall is a multi-faceted man. Not only a writer, but a business man in the radio and recording industry, a farmer and a member of the board of directors of a band, he maintains several hobbies including literary criticism and ornithology. He ran for Governor of Tennessee in 1982 and spends a good deal of time raising money for human causes and charities.

Tickets are available at the usual ticket outlets or by sending a check or money order to Kirtland Community College, Performing Artist Series, Route 4, Box 59A, Rosecommon, MI 48853, or by calling 517/275-5121. Advanced tickets are $10.50 each. Tickets may be purchased at the door for $11.50. Standing room will be sold the night of the concert at $11.50 per person.

RIVER IMPROVEMENTS — The AuSable North Branch Area Association built a sand trap near the old sheep ranch to catch sand that was creating a problem above and below Twin Bridge. The DNR endorsed the project but did not have the funds to construct the trap. The AuSable North Branch group felt immediate action was needed and obtained donations from members and from the Great Lakes Council of Federation of Fly Fishers. Charlie Kellogg, Robert Kellogg, Albert Proulx, Russell Gormaere, Doug Butler, Charles Jackson, William Pulgini, and W. Freyburger volunteered help to clear the area and Jack Millikin Inc. dug the trap.

Wheels For Life Bike Ride Fights Childhood Cancer

Bike-a-Thon chairman, Alan D. Leng, today asked Frederic residents to participate in the St. Jude Children's Research Hospital "Wheels For Life" Bike-a-Thon to be held Sept. 22, 1985, at Frederic.

Volunteer workers and riders are needed for the Bike-a-Thon to raise funds for the world-famous research center and its battle against childhood cancer and other catastrophic childhood diseases.

Al Leng said this year's ride is being dedicated to Terry, a Leukemia patient at St. Jude. "By riding for Terry, we'll really be helping all stricken children since research is the only way these illnesses can be conquered," Leng said. "We're looking for people who will contribute some of their time and energy to help children live. We really need bike riders, since they are the ones who can make this Bike-a-Thon successful."

In the Bike-a-Thon, riders enlist sponsors who donate a sum for each mile completed. Riders who raise $25 will receive a St. Jude T-shirt, and those raising $75 will receive a T-shirt and a barrel tote bag, said Leng.

"You can put your muscles to work for a child's life in this Bike-a-Thon," Leng said. "We need every bike and every rider."

St. Jude Hospital was founded by entertainer Danny Thomas and operates primarily from public contributions. So we need lots of riders of all ages.

Sponsor forms are available at Leng's Garage, Cooper's Country Corner, Newberry's General Store, Pineview Surplus & Supply, Frederic Elementary School, Frederic Community Library, or call Jim Stoddard at 348-5585.

This year, every rider will receive a prize and there will be other prizes, for oldest and youngest riders, riders who ride the most miles and others. Let's make this year's ride the best. The kids need us.

Grayling Conference For Substance Abuse Volunteer Groups

"Helping Volunteers Succeed", a conference for volunteer groups working for substance abuse prevention will be held in Grayling on Saturday, September 14th. The conference to be held at St. Mary's Family Center, 709 Spruce Street, will begin at 8:30 a.m. and continue to 5:00 p.m. It is for volunteer groups and individual volunteers working to prevent substance abuse problems in their communities and will attract participants from 35 counties in the northern lower peninsula and thumb areas.

The conference will be presented by Tom O'Reilly of Community Intervention, Inc. a consulting firm and resource center in substance abuse services. His presentations incorporate the insights that have emerged from many years of designing, implementing, and administering school chemical dependency programs.

Topics to be covered at the seminar include the key components of effective community programming, the essential role of the school, developing attitudes for success, and establishing priorities and goals. O'Reilly will also describe techniques for assessing current community resources, developing immediate and long range plans, and networking with other groups. He will particularly address issues of building credibility in the community and identifying and overcoming common barriers to community task forces.

Representatives of state, regional, and local substance service system will also be available.

The registration fee of $8.00 per person ($14.00 per married couple) includes the conference fee, lunch, and all seminar materials. Participants may register at the conference site.

Conference participants are also invited to a networking session at the Grayling Holiday Inn from 7:30 p.m. to 9:00 p.m. on Friday, September 13, to share ideas and discuss local resources.

By-Laws Revision On Booster Club Meeting Agenda

Proposed revision of some by-laws for the Grayling Booster Club will be discussed at the regular meeting September 19. The general membership of the club will be eligible to vote on the revisions at the board meeting.

Little League Ends Season

The 1985 season for the Grayling Little League is now over and once again a successful summer recreation program for over 200 girls and boys was presented. The season was not without its problems but fortunately they were few and the Board of Directors have taken what we believe to be appropriate steps to prevent these problems from arising again.

This season's fund raiser by the player's was held on June 8th. At that time the kids went door to door throughout the county collecting money for the local league, a total of $1,467.52 was raised at that time including $234.57 through Glen's Market Save-Share program. The day concluded for the kids with a hot dog roast put on for them by the Knights of Columbus at their new hall. A tremendous thank you goes to the Knights for their donation of the food and their time in preparing the lunch for the kids.

July 4th the adults had their chance to raise money by way of the dunk tank at the City Park and they came out of the water with $93.27 including a donation taken up by the Moose Lodge.

The success of the Grayling Little League depends on the many businesses and organizations that support the program by way of sponsorships, purchasing signs or donations, our thanks go out to these many groups for their participation.

Adult volunteers are always needed and this will never change. To make the 1986 season successful we need more adult volunteers than we had this year, if you are interested in helping during the next season please plan on attending the Board of Directors meeting on September 12, 1985. This meeting will be held at the Grayling Holiday Inn beginning at 7:00 p.m. Board of Directors and Officers will be elected at this meeting. For the past few years a small group of concerned individuals have been doing their best to run the programs but for Little League Baseball to survive in Grayling we need more help.

RIVER CLEAN-UP — With the water of the AuSable River a chilly 66 degrees, 30 members of the Deputy Sheriff's Association and the Law Enforcement Explorer Scouts participated in the 2nd annual river cleanup on August 22. Funds were donated by the local Trout Unlimited Chapter of George T. Mason. Canoes were donated by Carlisle Canoe Livery and help with the food supply from Dennis Rochette of the IGA Store. A truckload of trash was obtained from the cleanup going from Burton's Landing to Stephens Bridge on the all day event. Money obtained from the salvaged returnables will be donated to the Grayling Fish Hatchery. A higher number of glass returnables was salvaged this year as compared to last year's harvest. At the end of the event, a hot dog, potatoe salad and bean feast was prepared by Bob Ruddy and a crew for the participants. (Photo by Bob Ruddy)

Some changes for the 1985 hunting season that you should be aware of:

1. Hunter Orange: You may not hunt with firearms from August 15 through March 31 unless you wear a hat, cap, vest, jacket, rain-gear or other outer wear made of "Hunter Orange". The orange must be visible from all sides. Camouflage is acceptable if not less than 50 percent of the surface area is orange. Waterfowl, bobcat, crow, turkey, bear and deer bow hunters are exempted. During the fire-arm deer season, all hunters must comply.

2. New hunting hours are from one half hour before sunrise to one half hour after sunset, except for hunting migratory birds, turkeys, raccoons, skunks, foxes, mink and opossums. See the 1985-86 Waterfowl Guide (available soon) for times reference migratory birds. Woodcock hunting hours are from sunrise to sunset. Remember, sunrise and sunset times change daily. It is your responsibility to know the hunting hours.

3. No killing of bears statewide during the November 15-30 deer season.

4. Seasonal bag limits removed from: Squirrels, pheasants, ruffed grouse and sharp-tail grouse. Daily and possession limits remain the same.

5. New statewide rabbit season - September 15 to March 31.

6. New statewide squirrel season - September 15 thru January 1.

7. Elk hunt permit application deadline extended to September 16. Permit applications available at license agents.

To Whom It May Concern:
The City of Grayling has recently received complaints from some downtown area businesses regarding employees of other downtown businesses parking in on street parking spaces on Peninsular Avenue and Michigan Avenue on an all day basis.

You will recall that when the parking meters were removed from the downtown area several years ago there was general agreement from the owners of the downtown businesses that they and their employees would refrain from parking in the on street spaces intended for customer parking in front of other businesses.

It would be very much appreciated if employees in the downtown area would park either on the bank side of Peninsular Avenue or behind the business in which they work leaving the parking in front of businesses for customers for short term use. We believe co-operation in this matter will improve the business climate for all concerned and thank you for your support.

Regards,
Jerry W. Morford
City Manager

Mr. Howard Madsen, Editor
The Crawford Co. Avalanche
P.O. Box 490
Grayling, Mi. 49738

Dear Mr. Madsen:
After reading the latest letter by Mr. Benjamin F. Butts concerning our column in the Avalanche, "The Bible Speaks," one could sense a little of how Jesus and John the Baptist must have felt after encountering a Pharisee. Even concerning things like food and drink, for abstinence John was accused of being a demon or being crazy. For use, Jesus was accused of being a glutton and a winebibber or drunkard. (Luke 7:33, 34). By taking a small element of truth and twisting it into a big error, Mr. Butts has done a masterful job of making me appear unbalanced. Only those who faithfully read our column will know better.

First, we did not say "the spread of the disease Aids was caused by this country's traveling salesmen." Everyone knows that the spread of AIDS in America has been identified with the homosexual community. We only referred to traveling salesmen to illustrate how New York prostitutes, infected with AIDS through drug injection with contaminated needles, could help spread the disease outside of the homosexual community.

Mr. Butts by his own words missed the whole point of our article relating the fishing controversy on the AuSable to abortion: "The writer was not previously aware that sexual pleasures were sinful, or that fishing was related in any way to abortion." The fact that Mr. Butts is still more concerned about "conserving a dwindling population of trout" than the welfare of millions of aborted human beings, illustrates well the reason the article was written. The soul of one aborted baby is worth more than the life of all the trout in the AuSable River. We never intended to attack the pleasure of fishermen, but to call their attention to the plight of their own human beings. Fishing and hunting are probably the cleanest and healthiest of outdoor sports. Surely none of us believe the sexual pleasure between a loving husband and wife is sinful. Only sex outside of marriage is sinful.

Mr. Butts called our attention to the starving Africans and implied that abortion may be one solution to their problem: "This failure (in conservation efforts) coupled with no planned parenthood or controlled abortion has created an insufferable picture of decay." Killing the human problem is the classic humanist, socialist, and communist answer. Most of the communist countries which must import food today, were exporting food before communism took over. Most surplus food is in the free world, and is the envy of the communists. While Starving Africans present all of us with a complex situation involving many cultural, political, technological, and economic problems without simple solutions, the primary first cause of all their problems is atheistic communism. The answer is Bible Christianity.

Since Mr. Butts seems to faithfully read what "the rancorous Reverend" writes each week in "The Bible Speaks," perhaps he would like a personal invitation to attend Calvary Baptist Church. Everyone is welcome. Thank you, Mr. Butts, for the letter. We love your soul, and will be praying for you.

To The Editor
To the residents and registered voters of Lovells Township, Crawford County, Michigan:

During a recent visit to Lovells Township I learned of an attempt to recall members of the Township Board. I also attended the July meeting of the Township Board to determine first hand the question. It appears the recent addition to the Township Hall is the primary reason for the proposed recall action. As a former resident and currently a tax paying property owner in the township, I believe I have the right to express my opinion.

It was the mandate of the State of Michigan that offices of certain township officials must be located in the Township Building and open to the public for business during certain hours of the day. Accordingly the necessary offices were provided by an addition to the present township hall. It appears that certain procedures in the advertising and the awarding of bids for construction were not followed prior to the addition to the building. This is in violation of the State Public Acts governing the operation of township governments. An inspection of the addition was made and it appears that the construction was well planned and executed. The question now is: "shall the Township Board be recalled for reason of their deviation from standard procedures?" I heard no statements that any member of the board profited monetarily from the construction of the addition.

This leads me to believe that the recall action is a matter of political inspiration of a group of well meaning citizens of the township, to "get even" or an "I'll show them attitude" rather than the use of common sense. If the recall vote in October is successful it will result with chaos in the operation of the township for several months and needless expense to the taxpayers. Of equal importance: Who will replace them, and are they as well qualified thru experience to do the job?

Ask these questions of yourself, and consider them well when you cast your vote in the October election on the recall of your present Township Board.

Sincerely,

Wm. C. McGowan
(Former Township Trustee and Township Official)

Herbal Corner

Do you still have a few of your fragrant flowers in your garden? What about a potpourri? It isn't that hard to create your own. It is called wet-potpourri — made from fresh flowers.

Be sure flowers are free from water and dirt before you tear the petals off. Layer the flowers in a glass jar or a non-porous crock, alternating each layer with a sprinkle of kosher salt. Do Not Use Table Salt. Place your jar in a dark, cool place for about six weeks. Stir once or twice during that time. Your flowers will have dried darker, and you will have moisture-drawn by the salt in your potpourri. The water will dry out as you leave your jar open a few times.

If you have mint or other herbs, try them. Mints act as a fixative in potpourri. I have a potpourri made strictly from herbs two years ago that is just as strong today as it was then.

Try making your potpourri from the leaves as well as the flowers. A lot of plants that bloom in the spring have leaves that are fragrant when dried in the fall.

Imagine the satisfaction when you can open a jar of flowers and fragrances in December or January that you grew yourself the previous fall.

Fragrant flowers and leaves were used as far back as 6,000 years ago. Priests were the first perfumers for the religious rites; and the Egyptians were the first ones to create concoctions of different fragrances of perfumes. Even today when a tomb is opened, the excavators will find jars of perfumed materials that were used to either ward off evil while the deceased passed into the other life, to make it smell sweeter in his passing or in his other life, or as an offering to the Gods. Come to think of it, it would be pleasant — not to mention thoughtful.

Herbally yours,
E. Diona Cerelli, C.H.

Additional copies of the application form are available at the principal's office in each school. Households should answer all questions on the form. An application which does not contain all of the following information cannot be processed by the school: (1) the total household income AND the amount and source of income received by each household member (such as wages, child support, etc.) OR the household's food stamp case number if the household is on food stamps; (2) names of all household members; (3) social security numbers of all household members 21 years of age or older, or the word "none" for any adult household member who does not have a social security number; and (4) the signature of an adult household member.

Grayling Drops Opener 44-36

A young Grayling team lost a close game to a good Houghton Lake team 44-36 to open the 1985 season.

As expected, junior guard Michelle Moore led the team with 17 points while senior guard Kim Springer hit for 9. Dena Thayer added 8 and Rebecca Jones scored 2.

Grayling was ahead after one quarter 8-7. At the half the scored was 22-21 with Houghton Lake ahead. Grayling was down only by four after three quarters and the game stayed close until the end.

In a game dominated by fouls, Grayling shot only 22 percent from the floor and 44 percent from the free throw line. Head coach Tom Mills says his team should average from 60 to 70 percent from the free throw line. He also says they should be able to get more shots off.

"I wasn't happy with our fast break. It was nonexistent."

Although Grayling's tallest player is 5'8", Mills says rebounding didn't hurt his team. He was pleased with both the defense and hustle of his team, and he says he looks for the team to improve as the season goes along.

It was the second game for Houghton Lake, who clobbered Gaylord by 21 points earlier in the week.

Grayling played Roscommon there Monday and travels to West Branch Thursday, Sept. 12. Grayling has the next week off before they start action in the Michigan Huron Shores Conference, where they are the defending champions.

Fun at Hanson Hills

Have you seen all of the nice things that have been happening at Hanson Hills? There is a new Jungle Gym playground that was built by the crew from Camp Shawono under the direction of Alan Peterson. There are paddle boats to rent for a spin around the pond where you can see our two lovely swans and a family of ducks. The Park also abounds with deer.

The Men's Softball League is winding down this week with the final playoffs between Budweiser's and Metzgers.

Hanson Hills is a Community Park. Come out and enjoy your park!

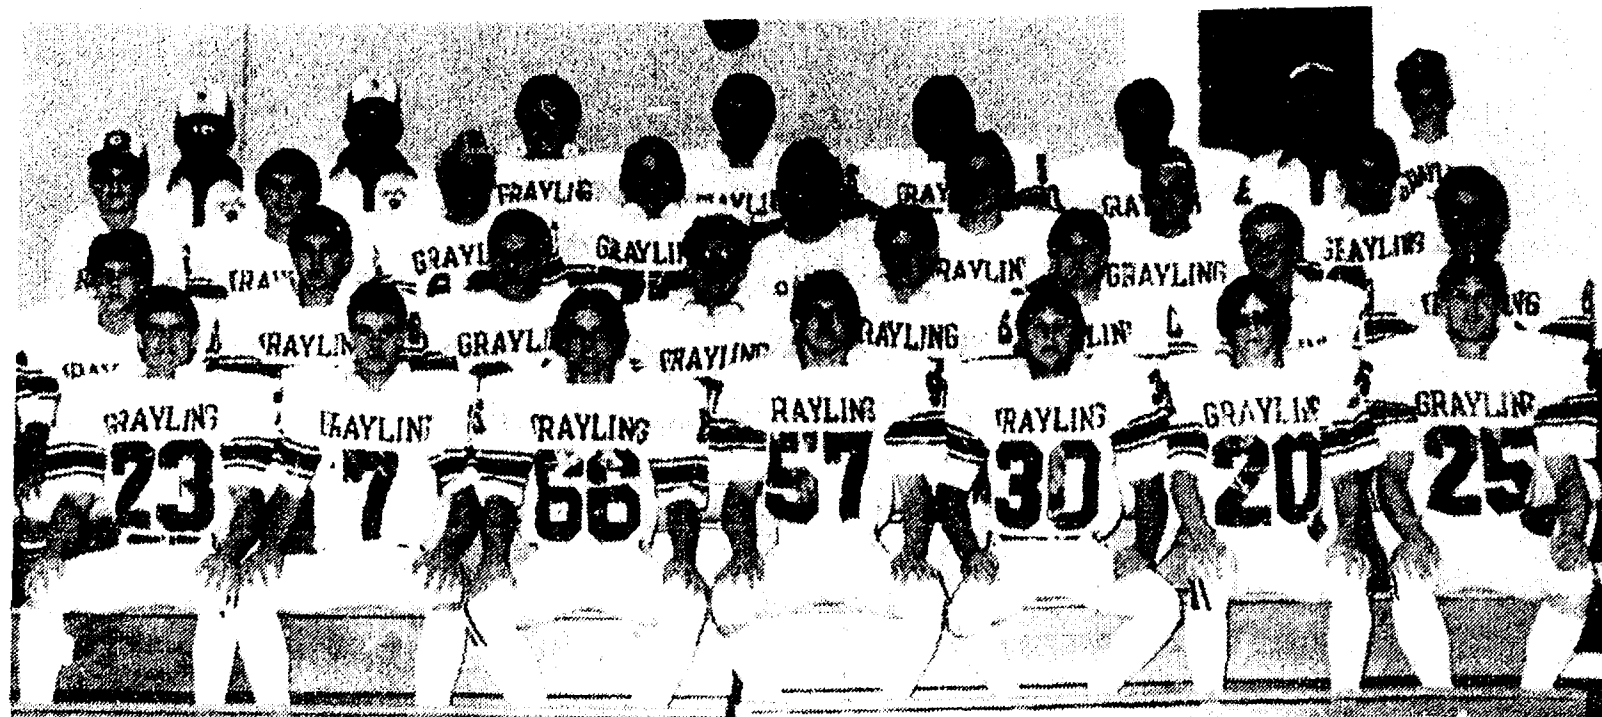

Boy Scout News

The last couple of weekends Boy Scouts of Troop 979 have been busy walking. The first was Aug. 23-24, when the troop participated in the AuSable District Connection which was a run/walk to celebrate Scoutings 75 Anniversary. The run/walk picked up many units along the way with nearly 300 participating from start to finish. A camp fire and awards ceremony was held at the camp Saturday evening when the last runner came in.

The second weekend the troop went up to Mackinaw City and camped over Sunday night. Monday morning we walked the bridge. The troop then spent the afternoon at Old Mill Creek Historical site, a good time was had by all those participating. Scouts who attended all or part of these activities were Jeff McLaughlin, Jay Ramsey, Jason Clark, Ron Bancroft and leaders, Loren Goodale & Todd Pfaff.

Upcoming events include participation in the District Fall Camporee the 1st weekend of October. Other events for this fall are also being planned.

Heat, Fumbles Hurt

Grayling in FB Opener

The Vikings were outnumbered against Roscommon on a hot, muggy night last Friday and two fumbles also contributed in 22-0 opening loss.

Grayling started the game with only 22 healthy players while Roscommon had 37 in uniform. The heat had to wear down some of the Vikings, especially those playing both offense and defense.

But two fumbles hurt their chances the most.

Roscommon drove to the Grayling six-yard line in the opening series before they coughed up the ball. Instead of taking advantage of the break, Grayling turned around and fumbled the ball back. Roscommon cashed in on the second chance.

The second Grayling fumble came at the start of the third quarter. The Vikings had returned the second half kick-off to Roscommon's 35-yard line and were looking to end the Bucks' 6-0 lead. Grayling fumbled and Roscommon then drove the field to score for a 13-0 lead.

In the fourth quarter, Roscommon pushed across another score and then added a 35-yard field goal.

Coach Klinger said his team never gave up and played hard the whole game despite being worn out.

"The heat really hurt us because of our lack of depth," Klinger said.

Klinger thought the two Grayling fumbles plus a drive to the 15-yard line that stalled were the three keys to the game for Grayling. He said because the team is young and inexperienced, there are bound to be some breakdowns such as fumbles.

On defense, Tom Miller, Jeff Wolcott, Rick Sprague, and Tom Laurent were the leading tacklers. Hudson, McEvers, and Nielson had good games playing both ways on the line.

Grayling only gained 84 yards compared to 167 for Roscommon. Miller gained 30 yards in 10 tries during the first half.

Grayling travels to Cheboygan this Friday.

Sales, Deaths High

Bicycle Manufacturers Association of America figures show that bike sales rose from 3.7 million in 1960 to a peak of 15.2 million in 1973, surpassing automobile sales. Nine million bicycles were sold in the country in 1983. The same year, says the National Safety Council, 1,100 cyclists were killed in the United States.

Who Should Control the River?

The August 28, 1985 issue of The NORTH WOODS CALL has a Front Page Article —

"State Fisheries Officials are being pressed by Gov. Blanchard, fly fishermen and businessmen to make a recommendation by Sept. 12 on no-kill fishing on the AuSable River's Holy Water. The no-kill battle, which has been pitched, especially in the Grayling area, is expected to burst into flame again at the Sept. 11-13 meeting of the Natural Resources Commission.

Gov. Blanchard's Conservation Advisor, Dave Dempsey, says the governor has received dozens of letters on the matter. Most letters, he said, favor no-kill. Blanchard, Dempsey says, has been trying to get fisheries brass to come up with their recommendation.

Dempsey adds that he and the governor recognize that it is a "social, not biological" issue."

The Taxpayers of Crawford County just aren't "social"!!!!

Day Care Enjoys 5th Birthday

HARD AT PLAY — A young girl makes a farm out of blocks found in a new 700-square-foot addition at the Day Care Center.

On August 28, 1985, The Crawford AuSable Day Care Center celebrated its 5th Anniversary. These years have been filled with growing, learning, and offering a service in our community.

The main focus of the center is to offer a loving, nurturing environment that offers a developmental program.

Crawford AuSable Day Care is licensed by the State of Michigan as a child care center and by the Federal Government as an educational institution. It is staffed by the following:

Pam Fisher who has a B.S. in social work and psychology from NMU and is licensed by the State of Michigan to instruct Pre-School developmental programs. Pam has been at the Day Care for 5 years. Pam's previous teaching experience included Eastern Upper Peninsular Intermediate School District and the Grayling Co-Op Nursery.

Jamie St. John has a degree in recreation from MSU. Jamie has been with the Day Care Center for 3 years as program director for children under 3½ years of age.

Carol VanNuck has been with the center for 4 years. Carol is an instructional assistant with many years of experience. Carol also administers the Department of Education food program.

Margaret Sheldon has been with the Center for 3 years. Margaret's previous work experience included 6 years with the Alpine Center for the developmentally disabled. Margaret will be responsible for our new infant program.

Our newest full-time staff person is Marsha Wakeley. Marsha began in June and is currently feeling the overwhelming sense of learning about the world of child care.

The Day Care offers the following programs: (1) Available child care for children in the following categories: Infants, Toddlers, Pre-Schoolers, and After school age. (2) A pre-school curriculum (offered from 8:30-12:30). (3) Department of Education USDA Food Program. (4) Latch key program for after school child care. (5) Summer Day Camp for children over 6. (6) Parenting skills for on hand experience in trouble areas. (Contact the local Dept. of Social Services for information regarding parenting classes).

In 1985 the Day Care Center received a grant to administer a Residential Care Facility for pregnant adolescents. This program is functioning as the Kenquest House and is directed by Carla Nolph.

A very important part of Day Care's program includes the foster grandparents. Our foster grandparents work 4 days a week and are assigned to work with children who have special needs.

Marie Reeves is full of ambition. She works with 3 very special children and gives those children a little extra love, attention and time. Marie has been at the center for 4 years and has many years of experience in the field of child development.

Frank Harrington has been at the center for 2 years. All the children enjoy "grandpa Frank". Frank also has specific children to concentrate his time and energy on.

Lillian Brabender has been bringing her love to the center for 1½ years. Lillian will be working in the nursery, singing, rocking, and giving her kindness.

Edna Anteau, the "youngest" grandma, has been at the center for 1½ years. Edna will also be in the nursery, and be assigned to 1 or 2 babies.

During the summer we have 2 extra foster grandparents. Eleanor Rankin and Joan Morrison. Eleanor and Joan work in our summer Day Camp program with children over 6. They are busy with the children as they swim, golf, help with crafts, and go on hikes.

Also during the summer we train 4 youths, enrolled in our Youth Work program, to work in the field of child development. We love their assistance, and they receive the opportunity to acquire new job skills.

Crawford AuSable Day Care is supported by many funding sources. The largest percentage of support is received through the parent's tuition, but the center is also supported by the following: (1) Local human services organization donations, i.e., the Boosters were responsible for the outdoor playground equipment. (2) The Lions have given us funds to purchase a variety of children's books. (3) Kiwanis have funded us for the purchase of stereo equipment and headphones. (4) Grants - Department of Education, Teen parent program, and Weyerhaeuser foundation.

The Day Care is also a United Way supported agency. This year it is being discussed that United Way Funds may be allocated for the purpose of scholarships to families in need of specific child care.

For further information or questions, call 348-7709 or visit us at 2989 Old Lake Road, Grayling.

She will be available to discuss any problems you may be having with Federal or State Government. She will be in Crawford County on: Tuesday, Sept. 17 at Lovells, 10:00 - 11:00, Lovells Township Hall and at Frederic Township Hall, 11:30 - 1:00 Frederic.

Completes ROTC Training

Lisa M. Smith, daughter of David L. Smith of Charlotte, and Shirley D. Schmooch of Rural Route 4, Grayling, has completed training in fundamental military skills at the Army ROTC basic camp at Fort Knox, Ky.

The basic camp is designed to give junior college graduates and college sophomores who have not taken ROTC courses the chance to enter the program. The camp also qualifies high school graduates for the ROTC program at any of the nation's six military junior colleges.

During the encampment, cadets received training in basic rifle marksmanship, military drill and ceremonies, communications and individual and small unit tactics.

Smith plans to enter the ROTC program at Michigan State University, East Lansing.

Chamber Chatter

Now that summer green is rapidly changing to fall reds and yellows it is time for us to look back and reflect on our summer accomplishments. One major accomplishment from the Chamber's Military Affairs Committee has been in maintaining a feeling of good will and cooperation between our business community and the 38,000 National Guardsmen who spent part of their summer training in Crawford County.

It is time to thank all the businesses who helped sponsor our nine very successful military receptions. A sincere thanks to one and all.

Light For Our Cities

There's something dramatic about a city at night — like this view of Pittsburgh after dark. All the problems that beset our cities seem hidden as the skyline comes alive with a million gleaming windows marking the towers of man's industrial prowess.

Lost in the shadows are the steeples and graceful roofs of a hundred churches. Few of them are lighted at night... yet they are the center and source of the true light our cities need.

In every city, village and hamlet there is a golden triangle sustaining the lives of our families. It is the message of faith, hope and love that glows from our churches.

Hancock Donation Provides Support for KCC

The recent acquisition of a portable video projection unit and large viewing screen by Kirtland Community College was made possible in part through a donation by ITT Hancock Engineered Products of Roscommon.

During the spring of 1985, plant quality manager, Gary Cross, made arrangements with Kirtland's Vocational Technical division for statistical process/quality control (SPC) training for 17 of Hancock's employees. Since video presentations are part of the SPC training, Hancock assisted in providing funds for the purchase of new video equipment for the college.

The portable equipment will allow KCC to provide more training at off-campus locations and also supplement on-going offerings on campus.

The College is interested in providing a variety of specialized training for area businesses and industries. Interested employers are invited to contact Paul Durbin, KCC Vocational Director at 275-5121, Ext. 270.

rounds and smaller caliber guns. Don Brown, from the Opal Lake Association in Otsego County, informed the group of the progress by XNOX, which stands for Exploration not Exploitation.

Brown said the organization does not want to be an adversary to gas and oil companies. They merely want to obtain better regulations protecting the rights of homeowners.

Brown said under current legislation, an oil and gas well can be built in your back yard and you have little recourse. The oil and gas industry is growing in Michigan at a rapid pace and key residential resort areas need to be protected.

Oil and gas wells are more than a nuisance, he said. They can lower land values as much as 30 percent immediately. Brown stated the mineral industry contributes $600 million to Michigan's economy and the resort community contributes $11.5 billion.

Brown said the oil must come out of the ground but better controls are needed.

"Right now, we have better regulations protecting the elk, bear, and warblers than we do for people," Brown said.

Ben Butts, from the Upper Manistee River Association, told the group about the problems caused by ORV's in the Deward area. He also said the ORV's are causing erosion problems at pipeline river crossings. Butts also said a drain at the M-72 bridge is funneling brine used on the road directly into the river.

Attending the meeting to hear the property owners' complaints were Ray Rustem and Charlie Guenther, from the Michigan United Conservation Clubs, Wayne Schmidt, MUCC staff ecologist and member of the Michigan Environmental Protection Board, Hal Fitch and Bob Borak, from the Dept. of Natural Resources.

It was the second meeting of the lake and river associations. The first meeting was held last year.
